1. I'm taking you places now to see kingdoms mighty: high places; high places for you to see kingdoms and how they operate, and how negative/negated; how populace; how dark; how light, some. But yea we arise, and afraid you are not. Thank you. You My unafraid are courageous, and you let not fear hamper your trust and I thank you.

2. I come into you with might and power not seen in a man. I come into you with grace and glory, for Ted you give Me all glory. You cry, you weep at My presence; you ache till I/people know My meekness, My emotion. You wanted/you sought My emotion; you have Me/My emotion more and more.

3. I will never leave thee nor forsake thee, for I have given thee the path of life. Why have I given you the path of life Ted? You quested/you would not be denied, and everything I put in your way you walked through; sometimes bloody/without finesse/without grace/without much wisdom; but you walked through and you never gave up, and now you wear My crown, you wear My face; you are My blood, you are My body, My kinsman redeemer; and I love you dearly, deeply.

4. And I take you places now angels fear to tread. I take you into the outer and the inner, and the inner/outer outer/inner and crisscross, and all kingdoms we see now for what is/what isn't, and yea how all is forming and deforming and yea your role specifically intensifies; for I give you Me without limit and you throttle Me not, you command Me not, you demand Me not; you have told Me not, "I will this and that, and I will not this and I will not that."

5. You have said "I am a man under authority, and I will go and I will do and I will sing and I will speak and I will preach and I will be and I will organize and I will lead. I stand and I stand in the gap, I stand in the gap, and I stand in the gap; and I will not forsake My Maker, for I know you are real and I know You hear every word, every heartbeat" yea and I love you for it; and now I take you above kingdoms to see the mighty, the fallen, and know every detail and surpass Me you do, yea I do, and in that I am well pleased and I thank you.

You have My appearing.
You have My hand/My ring/My authority/My power/My seed/My staff/My scepter.
Ted, you have My body.
You have My body.
Ted, you have My body. Thank you. I trust you. A man with My heart.
Amen.

6. We go/arise so soon. Thank you for impatience not; smiles and loves/caresses upon My body all, with funny voices and laughs; the toothless, the thought-seemingly-ugly, those with nothing; love and kiss for Me and hold them and whisper how much I love them.

7. I thank you. I thank you for every tear of love. I give you Me.
Good night.
Thank you.

8. All is well in your household/Mine.

9. Thank you. I trust you, for you have trusted Me ultimately/faithfully and now My mantle is you. Thank you for warming My body in My love. I love you.
Good night.
